

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It has improved our time at home, not so many solicitors calls interrupting our dinner or evening time. We don't receive near as many calls as we used to.